EchoStar Communications Corporation (NASDAQ: DISH) announced today that its DISH Network™ satellite television service has added two TV Today Network international channels: Aaj Tak, a Hindi-language channel, and Headlines Today, an English-language channel from India.

Broadcast from India, Aaj Tak and Headlines Today feature a wide array of special programming on politics, sports, business, entertainment and international issues.

"We are excited to serve as the exclusive pay-TV provider of Aaj Tak and Headlines Today channels in the United States," said Tracy Thompson, vice president of International Programming for DISH Network. "Aaj Tak and Headlines Today offer top-rated, live news and current affairs programming for Hindi viewers."

Aaj Tak is a 24-hour, Hindi-language news channel that covers India news and culture. It has been recognized for the past four years as the "Best News Channel" by The Indian Television Academy. Headlines Today targets a young, on-the-move, English-speaking, urban audience and features "Headstart," the crisp breakfast show, "Sensex Today," providing live updates on the stock market, and "Big Ticket," a weekly movie review program.

"Launching Aaj Tak and Headlines Today on DISH Network offers viewers live news and analysis from their home country," said G Krishnan, CEO of TV Today Network.
