

Blockbuster Rolls Out the Blue Carpet in Their Better Blockbuster Extravaganza

Blockbuster Drives New Members Into Refreshed Stores With Blockbuster Savings

Today, Blockbuster announced an exciting way to stay entertained away from the summer heat and keep the kids engaged with the release of the Better Blockbuster Extravaganza -- including free rentals of movies and games at their updated stores.

Now through July 31, Blockbuster is offering exclusive deals as part of the Better Blockbuster Extravaganza. Coupons available at www.betterblockbuster.com feature:

- Rent one movie get one free
- Rent one game get one free
- One free month of unlimited Kids and Family movie rentals through the Kids Pass membership subscription
- One free month of unlimited movie and game rentals through the Blue Ticket membership subscription

"The Extravaganza is a great opportunity for people to visit the new and better Blockbuster -- we have refreshed our stores, creating a new shopping experience," said Blockbuster president Michael Kelly. "Now it's easier to find just what you're looking for. We've set aside an entire section just for kids. The kids love having their own area to find their favorite movies. Blockbuster continues to be a family entertainment destination. Today, we have more than 7,000 Blockbuster employees nationwide and nearly 900 store locations, which makes us the largest video rental chain nationwide. That's more stores than Apple, Microsoft and Costco combined."

Summer is a great time to catch up on the latest movies, TV shows and games, as well as enjoy some of the classics. And with the great deals at the Better Blockbuster Extravaganza, movie and game lovers will get all the summer entertainment they can handle.
