

DISH Network Expands 1080p Movie Lineup

DISH Network Corporation (NASDAQ: DISH) today announced it is expanding its list of 1080p high definition programming to include "Speed Racer" on HD Pay-Per-View (PPV), available throughout October. DISH Network is the only pay-TV provider to offer programming in 1080p resolution quality comparable to Blu-Ray disc™, the best high definition resolution available today.

DISH Network subscribers with an MPEG-4 HD DVR receiver and a high definition television that is 1080p compatible may find "Speed Racer" on DISH Network Ch. 501. More 1080p movies will be available through DISH On Demand in the coming weeks. "Speed Racer" will be available on PPV to all current and new TurboHD DISH network subscribers.

DISH Network's advanced HD DVRs lead the industry, winning more Editors' Choice Awards* than any other receiver. DISH Network's ViP722™ HD DVR operates two televisions in separate rooms and has up to 500 hours of DVR storage capacity. Additional storage space is available by connecting an external hard drive via the ViP722's USB ports.

Consumers can sign up for the best high definition programming and service in the industry with DISH Network's new TurboHD programming packages, the only all-HD packages on the market, starting at $24.99 per month. TurboHD is available in three separate tiers and includes special "turbo-charged" features and benefits such as the best quality HD available including 1080p resolution where available and the most-watched HD channels that may be viewed on any TV – analog, digital or high definition.

Current DISH Network customers looking to add the industry's best high definition experience can get a "turbo-charged" HD package for as little as $10 more per month.
