

DISH Network Extends HD Leadership, Delivers Slate of Nine New National HD Channels

Launch Brings DISH Network's National HD Count to More Than 160 Channels

DISH Network L.L.C., the fastest-growing pay-TV provider in America, today announced a substantial expansion of the largest high definition lineup in the U.S. with the introduction of nine new HD channels: Fox Soccer Channel HD, Sportsman HD, Hallmark Channel HD, IndiePlex HD and RetroPlex HD, which are only available on DISH Network, as well as truTV HD, E! HD, BBC America HD and SHOWTIME® (West) HD. The definitive HD leader, DISH Network now broadcasts more than 160 HD channels.

"DISH Network continues to extend its HD leadership with the launch of nine additional high-quality, sought-after HD channels," said Charlie Ergen, President, Chairman and CEO of DISH Network. "We continue to deliver on our commitment to give our customers the breadth and depth of top HD programming they ask for at a value unmatched by any other pay-TV provider."
