

DISH Network and CMT Partner to Super Serve the Country Music Fan with High Profile Music Programming

DISH Network to Present New Franchise "CMT Front Row Only on DISH Network" Featuring Country Superstars Reba McEntire, Brad Paisley, Darius Rucker and Sugarland

For the first time, DISH Network® and CMT have partnered to bring country music's biggest stars to DISH Network subscribers, as announced today by Ira Bahr, Chief Marketing Officer for DISH Network and Mary Beth Cunin, senior vice president of Programming Strategy for CMT. Under the deal, six episodes of the popular CMT series "Invitation Only" will have exclusive premiere windows on DISH Network's new CMT-branded franchise, "CMT Front Row Only on DISH Network."

The one-hour, monthly series will kick off on DISH Network on Tuesday, June 2 with Darius Rucker. Upcoming episodes will feature Reba McEntire, Brad Paisley and Sugarland, with more to be announced. The DISH Network and CMT partnership also includes content from the critically-acclaimed series "CMT Crossroads," and the upcoming "2009 CMT Music Awards" airing live Tuesday, June 16.

"Providing world premiere HD content like CMT's exclusive country music concert series is just one of the reasons DISH Network is the pay-TV leader in high quality programming and value," said Ira Bahr, Chief Marketing Office for DISH Network.
